Spirits & Wine Review - June, 2010

Herradura Blanco (Suave)

- This smooth, clean tequila is aged for 45 days to add a hint of color and oak to its tangy citrus character, which brings more agave flavor and unparalleled pleasure to a margarita.
  - Color: Light straw
  - Aroma: Green and cooked agave with herbal and slightly woody notes
  - Taste: Agave, woody notes and slightly citric flavor
  - Finish: Smooth, clean and warming
  - Age: 45 days
  - Alcohol Content: 40%

Herradura Blanco

Score -96

HIGHEST RECOMMENDATION/BEST BUY -- The bouquet is marvelously animated with vibrant herbal and earthy aromas of dill, green pepper, mace, hemp and tilled earth. Entry is intensely herbal and earthy, and keenly peppery; at midpalate the acidity fuels the flavor push of brine, dill, soil, textile and light spice. Concludes as peppery and forceful as it began. A world-class spirit. CLASSIC (96-100)

2006 Beaulieu Cabernet Sauvignon Private Reserve Georges de Latour

+ 91 Points

- The strongest wine made at Beaulieu in many years.
- The 2006 Georges de Latour exhibits a dense inky/purple color along with a sweet bouquet of graphite, licorice, charcoal, crème de cassis, and sweet cherries. Deep, ripe, and full-bodied with powerful tannins, admirable structure, and superb depth, it will benefit from 2-4 years of bottle age, and should be drinkable over the following 25+ years.

Jeffrey Stambor - Beaulieu Vineyard Winemaker

"It's an exciting time to be a winemaker at Beaulieu Vineyard, and I'm especially proud of the care we've taken to improve our historic Rutherford estate. Our vineyards are a rich source of inspiration, the creative spark that helps us guide our wines to reveal the distinctive flavor and personality of each terroir." – Jeffrey Stambor
