Spirits & Wine Review – February, 2011

CORZO TEQUILA SILVER

Notes: An exceptionally elegant and flavorful tequila with notes of citrus and vanilla, Corzo silver is best enjoyed as a sipping tequila or when prepared with the highest quality of mixers. The Corzo bottle was created by designer Fabien Baron, a designer for fashion, fragrance and entertainment.

Review: Wine Enthusiast(10/01/2006) - HIGHLY RECOMMENDED -- A fresh and seductive fragrance that includes scents of cucumber, agave pulp, fennel, pine, coriander and mint. The palate entry is smooth and correctly agave juice-sweet; at midpalate the flavors meld into a semisweet and lusciously prickly taste thrust. Finishes on a heated note as the spirit races ahead of the agave. -- SUPERB (90-95)

SONOMA CUTRER CHARDONNAY SONOMA COAST

Notes: Flavors of lemon, apple, pear, pineapple and cantaloupe-the full array of Sonoma's cornucopia of fruit, joins a nutty, spicy, lightly oak profile that stakes out a unique territory sure to please those who love Chardonnay

Reviews: Connoisseur's Guide to California

Wine(04/09/2009) - The Chardonnays of Sonoma Cutrer have always veered to the restrained side of the varietal spectrum, and, while this bottling starts out with a fair bit of honeyed-apple richness, it steers to firmness with minerals and firm acids its most lasting traits. Its tendency to stiffness may abate some with age, and it is a wine that should match up nicely with a wide range of white-fleshed fish recipes.

California Grapevine (04/01/2009) - HIGHLY RECOMMENDED -- Medium-light golden yellow; pleasant, restrained, earthy, white peach and citrus aroma; medium-full to full body; tight, herbal, lemony flavors; lingering aftertaste.
